WELCOME

9th IOC is the biggest event in the orthodontics calendar, and it is coming soon!

October 4-6, 2020

Your members may have seen notices popping up on social media, or even on the organisers' website. As an organisation that is keen on keeping their members up to date with all that is important in the profession, you may have been thinking about including it in your communication yourself.

There's a lot of information out there, so to save you having to collate it all, here's a handy toolkit.

How to use this guide:

- Inspiration

Edit it and change it into a style your readers are familiar with

- Knowledge base

Save it on your desktop as a go-to guide to IOC links and dates

- Ready to post

Feel free to use it as a ready-to-use content: copy-paste-post

If you have any questions, we are here to support you.

9th IOC is one of the more significant events in our calendar, and this year the conference will be bigger than ever.

And, for the first time, it is fully virtual.

This means that the lectures are going to premiere as planned (October 4-6, 2020), and they are going to be made available on-demand for almost a month after. What's more, we are getting 24/7 access to content and a chance to re-watch all the lectures.

With a packed Doctor's Program and Allied Health Professionals Program, there is a lot choose from. Registration is now open (have your membership details to hand).

Follow this link to get your tickets.

This October you can get to the #9thIOC in a second. Just click a button and you're in! No packing, no delays, just the joy of being a part of the biggest orthodontic conference of 2020. Are you joining us?

Post 5

The turbulence of the pandemic have forced us change the way we do things, even when it comes to the way we seek knowledge and professional advancement. One example of such successful transformation is the #9thIOC taking place in October.

Originally, we were all invited to Yokohama, and thanks to the modern technology, we still are – just virtually. The congress is happening online. All the lectures and posters are going to be streamed directly to our screens. What's more, we are going to have 24/7 and on-demand access as well. It's a chance to embrace a new format, take part in a historical event and – digitally – immerse ourselves in the experience.

The hosts have collated a full agenda and are doing their best to make it a well-rounded event. Have you booked your ticket? Go to wfo2020yokohama.org
